

REQUEST A COMPLIANCE DISMISSAL

To qualify for a compliance dismissal, you must provide proof of correction of the violation within 20 days of the violation or before the appearance date listed on the citation – whichever comes first.

You may come into the office to provide proof, or you may email the court proof of correction.

You may wish to call the court first to receive instructions about what specific proof is needed for your violation.

You must also pay the required $10.00 dismissal fee. You may make this payment with a debit/credit card by calling the court, or by clicking the “click here to make a payment” link on our website and using the docket number assigned to your case. You may obtain your docket number by calling the court or on the “Public Access” link on the website.

Please email the court or call with any questions.
