

How do I get started?

To get started, register for employment services via the internet by visiting the Work-in-Texas website at www.workintexas.com and complete the online registration. Work-in-Texas will match your skills and experience to the job postings in any area of the state and notify you when a suitable match has been found.

Next, contact your local Texas Veterans Commission Veteran employment services representative to get personal assistance in your job search. Representatives are located at workforce centers. Ask for the Texas Veterans Commission by name.

Go to www.TexasVeteransCommission.org to find the workforce center closest to you.

TEXAS VETERANS COMMISSION

The Texas Veterans Commission is a State agency created to serve Texas Veterans, their dependents or survivors in all matters pertaining to veterans benefits and rights.

Over 250 skilled counselors in 75 cities provide one-on-one guidance to Veterans and their families to ensure they get the maximum benefits they have earned.

Assistance is provided to Veterans in obtaining state and federal benefits such as disability compensation, pension, employment, education and training.

For information about how the Texas Veterans Commission can help you and your family go to www.TexasVeteransCommission.org.

Your Success is Our Business

We Serve VETERANS

The Texas Veterans Commission offers employment services to Texas Veterans and helps employers find qualified Veteran job applicants. The goal of these services is to match Veteran job seekers with the best employment opportunities available.

We have over 175 dedicated Veteran employment representatives who make it easier than ever for Veterans to find the career, job training, or support services necessary to succeed in life.

These specialists are located in 75 cities throughout Texas and offer one-on-one assistance to Veterans with applications and resume preparation, job search, job referral, referrals to support services and more.

Our Veteran employment representatives are located in workforce offices - ask for the Texas Veterans Commission by name.

If you're a Veteran, contact the Texas Veterans Commission today. We are here to help Veterans like you turn the valuable training and experience you received on active duty into personal victory.

Job Search Assistance

With a statewide network of Veteran employment representatives, we offer Veterans valuable assistance in identifying and securing the positions they want.

Intensive Services

Intensive services are provided to disabled Veterans and Veterans with other barriers to employment, especially homeless Veterans.

Résumé Development

One of the biggest challenges in obtaining civilian employment is translating military experience to civilian terms. We help Veterans communicate their skills and experience in concise, compelling resumes.

Referrals to Training Programs

To help Veterans succeed in whatever field they choose, we provide referrals to training programs for areas as diverse as emerging technology to office management.

Job Search Resources

www.TexasVeteransCommission.org has a variety of resources for job seekers including a Veterans only job board, job search links, a job fair calendar, re-employment information and more.

Referrals to Support Services

As part of our commitment to helping Veterans succeed in life, we offer referrals to locally-available support services.
