an obscured license plate if: (a) the defendant shows proof to the court that the license plate has been cleaned or the obstruction removed within 30 days from the date of the ticket and (b) the defendant pays a $10 administrative fee. FAILURE TO DISPLAY A DRIVER'S LICENSE: Pursuant to Section 521.025 of the Texas Transportation Code, the Court will dismiss a charge of failure to display a driver's license if: (a) the defendant produces proof to the court that they had a valid driver's license on the day of the offense and that the license was appropriate for the type of vehicle they were operating and (b) the defendant pays a $10 administrative fee. VIOLATING A DRIVER'S LICENSE RESTRICTION OR ENDORSEMENT: Pursuant to Section 521.221 of the Texas Transportation Code, the Court will dismiss a charge of violating a driver's license restriction or endorsement ticket if: (a) the restriction or endorsement was imposed because of a physical condition that was surgically or otherwise medically corrected before the date of the offense or the restriction or endorsement was imposed in error by DPS and that fact is established by the defendant; (b) DPS removes the restriction or endorsement within 30 days from the date of the ticket and (c) the defendant pays a $10 administrative fee. NO INSURANCE: Pursuant to Section 601.193 of the Texas Transportation Code, the Court will dismiss a no insurance ticket if: (a) the defendant provides written proof of valid insurance at the time of the offense and (b) the court is able to verify with the insurance company that the insurance was valid and covered the defendant and the vehicle he was driving. This Court will NOT dismiss this type of ticket if proof is not provided as detailed above. Further, if a defendant sets his no insurance ticket for court, proof of valid insurance must be submitted to the court at least 5 business days prior to the court date. The defendant must provide a paper copy of their proof of valid insurance---an image displayed on an electronic device is not acceptable to the Court.
