

Permit Required through Road & Bridge Engineering	Permit NOT Required through Road & Bridge Engineering
Detention ponds or tanks	Structural Electrical configurations
Driveways from a county-maintained road	Signage outside the Waller County ROW
Turn lane on a county-maintained road	Landscaping
Installation, repair or boring of cable, conduit, pipe and/or poles and lines within the right-of-way of County maintained roadways and drainage ditches
Any work to be performed within a floodplain or flood-prone area
Fill placement or excavation outside the Floodplain greater than 500 cubic yards per acre of land, and/or there is a change in any elevation by six (6) inches or more
Construction of any structure or concrete slab (including existing building modification) which is equal to or larger than 100 square feet, including but not limited to a barn, garage, workshop, dwelling or storage building
Work involves the development of improved or unimproved real estate including but not limited to buildings or other structures, mining, dredging, filling, grading, paving, excavation or drilling operations, or storage of equipment and materials
Fill placement or excavation outside the Floodplain greater than 500 cubic yards per acre of land, and/or there is a change in any elevation by six (6) inches or more

Note: No structural fill is allowed inside the Floodplain, any other fill inside the floodplain must be mitigated and reviewed by Waller County. It is recommended that any work conducted inside the Floodplain be reviewed by the Waller County Engineers Office