

ORDINANCE NO. 24-726-16

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BROOKSHIRE, TEXAS ORDERING A SPECIAL ELECTION TO BE HELD ON MAY 4, 2024, FOR THE PURPOSE OF SUBMITTING TO THE VOTERS A PROPOSITION TO ADOPT A HOME RULE CHARTER; AUTHORIZING THE MAYOR, OR DESIGNEE, TO ENTER INTO A JOINT ELECTION AGREEMENT WITH WALLER COUNTY TO CONDUCT THE SPECIAL ELECTION ON BEHALF OF THE CITY OF BROOKSHIRE; DESIGNATING THE PLACES AND MANNER OF HOLDING THE ELECTION; PROVIDING FOR THE POSTING AND PUBLICATION OF NOTICE; PROVIDING A SAVINGS CLAUSE; PROVIDING AN OPEN MEETINGS CLAUSE; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the City Council (the “Council”) of the City of Brookshire, Texas (the “City”) desires to order a Special Election on May 4, 2024, for the purpose of submitting to the voters a proposition to adopt a Home Rule Charter in accordance with Section 9.003 of the Texas Local Government Code; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 9.002(d)(1)(A) and (2) of the Texas Local Government Code, the Council selected a charter commission in 2019 and the charter commission proceeded with the formation of a Home Rule Charter for the City, a preliminary draft of which is attached hereto as “Exhibit A”; and

WHEREAS, the City Secretary shall, before the 30th day before the date of the election, mail a final copy of the proposed Home Rule Charter to each registered voter of the City in accordance with Section 9.003(b) of the Texas Local Government Code; and

WHEREAS, the Council finds that it is in the public interest that the City enter into a joint election agreement and election services contract with Waller County in order to provide the most efficient and convenient voting opportunities for the Special Election, with voting available at polling locations and the potential for extended hours for early voting identified herein; and

WHEREAS, Section 3.005 of the Texas Election Code requires that Special Elections be ordered not later than the 78th day before the date of the election; and NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BROOKSHIRE, TEXAS THAT;

Section 1. The recitals to this Ordinance are true and correct and are hereby incorporated into this Ordinance for all intents and purposes.

Section 2. In accordance with the general laws and the Constitution of the State of Texas, a Special Municipal Election is hereby called and ordered for Saturday, May 4, 2024, the same being the first Saturday in May, at which the following proposition for adopting a Home Rule Charter for the City of Brookshire, Texas (the “Charter”) shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the City for their action thereon. In the election, the registered voters of the City shall decide by voting “For” or “Against” whether they are in favor of the following proposition:

Proposition A

THE ADOPTION OF A HOME RULE CHARTER FOR THE CITY OF BROOKSHIRE, TEXAS TO INCLUDE PROVISIONS FOR THE INCORPORATION AND POWERS OF THE CITY, OFFICES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF MAYOR AND CITY MANAGER, OFFICES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF CITY COUNCIL, CITY ADMINISTRATION AND DEPARTMENTS, AND MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

FOR _____ AGAINST _____

Section 3. The present boundaries of the City constitute one (1) election precinct. The polling places for this election precinct shall be as designated by Waller County.

Section 4. The Special Election shall be held in accordance with, and shall be governed by, the election laws of the State of Texas. The Council, pursuant to Chapter 271 of the Texas Election Code, authorizes the Mayor, or his designee, to enter into a joint election agreement with Waller County and other participating political subdivisions for the Special Election. The City Secretary, the Mayor and the Mayor's designee are hereby authorized to perform all duties and take all actions as required by an election services contract or joint election agreement related to the Special Election.

Section 5. Waller County shall designate the Main Early Voting Location for early voting for the Special Election and shall appoint the Early Voting Clerk and Deputy Early Voting Clerk for early voting in person and voting by mail, who shall, upon approval of an application for ballot by mail related to the Special Election, provide balloting materials to the voter in accordance with the election laws of the State of Texas. Applications for ballot by mail (the "ABBM") shall be mailed, faxed, email, or delivered by common or contract carrier to the addresses or numbers identified in the joint election documentation attached to this Ordinance as "Exhibit B".

Section 6. The last day for the early voting clerk to receive applications for a ballot to be voted by mail via mail (regardless of postmarked date), fax, common or contract carrier, or email, is Tuesday, May 4, 2024, in accordance with Section 84.007(c) of the Texas Election Code. If a voter submits an ABBM via fax or email. The Early Voting Clerk must receive an original or a copy with a wet signature via mail within four (4) business days of the submission of the fax or email, in accordance with Section 84.007(b-1) of the Texas Election Code.

Section 7. The places at which Early Voting by personal appearance shall be conducted shall be designated by Waller County. During the lawful early voting period, the Early Voting Clerk shall keep such locations for early voting open for early voting as required by the Texas Election Code, at a minimum,

Section 8. Voting for the Special Election, including early voting, shall be by the use of voting machines; and the ballots of the Special Election shall conform to the election laws of the State of Texas, as amended. Waller County, via a joint election agreement or election services contract with the City shall obtain, or cause to be obtained, the necessary electronic tabulating equipment, to arrange for the testing thereof as provided by law and to employ a duly qualified manager and a duly qualified tabulation supervisor to perform the duties respectively imposed on them by law with respect to the processing and tabulation of ballots at the Central Counting Station.

EXHIBIT A – PRELIMINARY DRAFT HOME RULE CHARTER

CITY OF BROOKSHIRE | HOME RULE CHARTER

ARTICLE I: INCORPORATION

Section 1. CORPORATE POWERS

- (a) Corporate Name – The inhabitants of the City of Brookshire, Waller County, Texas, residing within its corporate limits as heretofore or hereafter established, are hereby constituted and shall continue to be a municipal body politic and corporate in perpetuity under the name of the “CITY OF BROOKSHIRE” (the “City”), with such powers, privileges, rights, duties and immunities as are herein provided.
- (b) Boundaries – The boundaries of the City shall be the same as have been heretofore established and now exist and those boundaries established and changed hereafter in all annexation ordinances and proceedings of the City Council of the City (the “Council”) filed in the Office of the City Secretary.
- (c) Extension and Alteration – The Council shall have the power, by ordinance, to: fix the boundary limits of the City; provide for the alteration and extension of said boundary limits; annex additional territory, with or without the consent of the owners and inhabitants of the territory annexed; and to detach, or disannex, territory from the boundary limits of the City in any manner not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Texas. Upon the final passage of any ordinance annexing territory, the corporate limits of the City shall thereafter include the territory so annexed. When any additional territory has been so annexed, the same shall be a part of the City; the property situated therein shall bear its pro rata part of the taxes levied by the City; the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all of the rights and privileges of all citizens of the City; and, the inhabitants thereof shall be bound by the acts, ordinances, resolutions, and regulations of the City. Upon the final passage of any ordinance detaching or disannexing territory from the City, the corporate limits of the City shall be reduced by the territory so detached or disannexed.

Section 2. FORM OF GOVERNMENT

The municipal government provided by this Charter shall be known as the “council-manager” form of government. Pursuant to its provisions, and subject only to the limitations imposed by the Texas Constitution, the laws of the State of Texas, and by this Charter, all powers of the City shall be vested in the Council which shall enact local legislation, adopt budgets, determine policies, and appoint the City Manager, who shall execute the laws and administer the government of the City. All powers of the City shall be exercised in the manner prescribed by this Charter, or if the manner be not prescribed, then in such manner as may be prescribed by ordinance or resolution.

ARTICLE II: POWERS OF THE CITY

Section 1. GENERAL

The City shall have all powers possible for a home-rule city to have under the Texas Constitution, the laws of the State of Texas, and this Charter, as fully and completely as though they were specifically enumerated in this Charter, together with the implied powers necessary to carry into execution such granted powers.

Section 2. EMINENT DOMAIN

The City shall have the full right, power, and authority of eminent domain where necessary or desirable to execute any power conferred upon it by the Texas Constitution, the laws of the State of Texas, and this Charter, and may condemn either private or public property, whether in or out of the corporate limits of the City, for such purposes.

ARTICLE III: MAYOR AND CITY MANAGER

Section 1. OFFICE CREATED; QUALIFICATIONS; TERM

- (a) There is hereby established the Office of the Mayor of the City, the incumbent of which shall be: a citizen of the United States; at least eighteen (18) years of age; a qualified voter; and, residing within the City for at least twelve (12) months prior to election. The Mayor shall be elected from the residents of the City at large. The Mayor shall hold office for three (3) years, or until a successor is elected and qualified, unless sooner removed as provided by this Article. The Mayor shall be elected in odd numbered years. The Mayor shall preside at the meetings of the Council and shall be recognized as the head of the City’s government for all ceremonial purposes, and by the Governor of the State of Texas for purposes of military law, but shall have no regular administrative duties. The Mayor shall not be entitled to vote except in case of a tie of the Council. Subject to the confirmation of the Council, the Mayor, along with any Councilperson, shall have the power to appoint all boards and commissions.
- (b) Disability of the Mayor – If, for any reason, the Mayor fails, is unable, or refuses to perform the duties of the Office of the Mayor, then the Mayor Pro Tem: shall act as the Mayor during such absence or disability; shall possess all of the powers, and perform all of the duties of, the Mayor; and, is entitled to receive the fees and compensation prescribed for the Mayor.

Section 2. MAYOR PRO TEM

Each year, at the first regular meeting of the Council, after the newly elected Councilmembers have been inducted into office, or as soon as practicable thereafter, the Council shall select one (1) of the Councilmembers who shall be known and designated as the “Mayor Pro Tem”, and shall continue to hold the title and the office until a successor is appointed, but shall receive no extra pay by reason of being or acting Mayor Pro Tem. In the case of the death, resignation, or for any other reason, the Mayor Pro Tem is unable to serve, causing a vacancy to occur, then the Council shall select one (1) of the Councilmembers who shall be known and designated as the “Mayor Pro Tem”, and shall continue to hold the title and the office until a successor is appointed, but shall receive no extra pay by reason of being or acting Mayor Pro Tem.

Section 3. FORFEITURE

If the Mayor is absent for three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Council, without being sick or first having obtained a leave of absence at a regular meeting, the office is declared vacated.

Section 4. VACANCY

In case of the death, resignation, or permanent disability of the Mayor, or if the Mayor ceases to possess any of the qualifications listed in Section 1 of this Article, or if the Mayor ceases to reside in the City, then the office shall immediately become vacant. Whenever a vacancy in the Office of Mayor shall occur for any reason, the Mayor Pro Tem shall: act as the Mayor; receive the same compensation as the Mayor; possess all of the rights and powers of the Mayor; and, perform all of the duties of the Mayor under the official title of the "Mayor Pro Tem" until the next available uniform election date, at which time a Mayor shall be elected to fill the unexpired portion of the current Mayor's term.

Section 5. PRIVILEGE OF VOTE

The Mayor shall be entitled to vote only upon a tie vote of the Council on a matter.

Section 6. COMPENSATION OF MAYOR

From and after the effective date of this Charter, the annual salary of the Mayor shall be determined by the Council.

Section 7. CITY MANAGER

- (a) The Council shall appoint an officer of the City who shall have the title of City Manager and who shall have the powers and perform the duties as provided in this Charter. No elected official shall receive such appointment during the term for which the elected official shall have been elected, nor within one (1) year after the expiration of the elected official's term of office. The City Manager shall be chosen by the Council solely on the basis of the person's executive and administrative qualifications. At the time of City Manager's appointment, the City Manager need not be a resident of the City or State. The City Manager shall have the right to take part in the discussion of all matters coming before the Council, but shall have no vote.
- (b) The City Manager shall have an employment contract with the City which: shall be approved by at least a simple majority of the full Council (3 out of 5); shall fix the compensation of the City Manager; and, shall provide for a review of the City Manager by the Council at least once, but not more than twice, per year. The Council shall appoint the City Manager for an indefinite term and may remove him or her by a super majority vote (4 out of 5) of its members.

Section 8. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF CITY MANAGER

The City Manager shall be the chief executive officer and the head of the administrative branch of the City. The City Manager shall be responsible to the Council for the proper administration of all affairs of the City, and to that end, the City Manager shall have power and shall be required to:

- (a) Except for the position of City Attorney, appoint and, when necessary for the good of the city, remove all officers and employees of the City, except as otherwise provided by this Charter and except for the case where the City Manager has authorized the head of a department to appoint and remove subordinates in such department.
- (b) Prepare the budget annually, submit it to the Mayor and the Council, and be responsible for its administration after adoption.
- (c) Prepare and submit to the Council, at the end of the fiscal year, a complete report on the finances and administrative activities of the City for the preceding year.

- (d) Keep the Council advised of the financial condition and future needs of the City and make such recommendations as may seem desirable to him or her.
- (e) Direct and supervise the administration of all departments, offices, and agencies of the City, except as otherwise provided by this Charter or other law.
- (f) Attend all meetings of the Council, where the City Manager shall have the right to take part in discussions, but shall not vote.
- (g) See that all laws, provisions of this Charter, and acts of the Council that are subject to enforcement by the City Manager, or by officers subject to the City Manager's direction and supervision, are faithfully executed.
- (h) Encourage and provide staff support for regional and intergovernmental cooperation.
- (i) Approve the agenda of each meeting of the Council in accordance with this Charter and the rules of procedure adopted by the Council.
- (j) Perform such other duties as may be prescribed by this Charter, or required of him or her by the Council, not inconsistent with this Charter.
- (k) The City Manager shall designate, by letter filed with the City Secretary, a qualified administrative officer of the City to perform the duties during the temporary absence or disability of the City Manager. In the event of incapacitation of the City Manager, the mayor shall designate with a simple majority approval of council (3 out of 5), a qualified administrative officer of the City to perform the duties during the temporary absence or disability of the City Manager.

Section 9. COUNCIL NOT TO INTERFERE IN APPOINTMENTS OR REMOVAL

Neither the Council, nor any of its members, shall direct the appointment of any person to, or the removal from, office by the City Manager or by any of the City Manager's subordinates; provided, however, that the appointment of department heads shall be subject to the approval of the Council. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the Council and its members shall deal with the administrative service solely through the City Manager, and neither the Council nor any member thereof shall give orders to any subordinates of the City Manager, either publicly or privately.

ARTICLE IV: THE COUNCIL

Section 1. OFFICE CREATED: QUALIFICATIONS

There is hereby established a "City Council" of the City. The Council shall consist of five (5) Councilmembers elected from the City at large. Three (3) Councilmembers shall be elected in even numbered years, and two (2) Councilmembers shall be elected in odd numbered years. A candidate for Council must: reside within the City; be a citizen of the United States; be at least eighteen (18) years of age; be a qualified voter residing within the City for at least twelve (12) months prior to election to office.

Section 2. TERM

The term of the Councilmembers shall be three (3) years. The Councilmembers elected in the first election after this Charter is adopted shall serve a three (3) year term. All successive Councilmembers shall be elected for a term of three (3) years.

Section 3. FORFEITURE

If a Councilmember is absent for three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Council, without being sick or first having obtained a leave of absence at a regular meeting, the office is declared vacated.

Section 4. VACANCY

When a single vacancy occurs in the Council, a majority of the remaining members, excluding the Mayor, may fill the vacancy by appointment. The person appointed to fill the vacancy serves until the next regular municipal election. In lieu of appointing a person to fill a vacancy on the Council, a special election may be ordered to elect a person to fill the vacancy. If two (2) or more vacancies on the Council exist at the same time, a special election shall be ordered to fill the vacancies.

Section 5. MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL

- (a) The Council shall meet at the time and place determined by resolution adopted by the Council.
- (b) The Mayor or City Manager may call a special meeting of the Council. Each member of the Council, the City Secretary, the City Manager, and the City Attorney must be notified of the special meeting. The notice may be given personally or left at the person's usual place of residence. The Council may compel the attendance of an absent member to a special meeting.
- (c) The Council shall determine the rules of its proceedings and the consequences for the violation of the rules of its proceedings.
- (d) Quorum – A majority of the members of the Council established by Section 1 of this Article shall constitute a quorum to conduct business. However, at a special meeting or a meeting to consider the imposition of taxes, a super majority vote (4 out of 5) of the members of the Council, established by Section 1 of this Article, shall be necessary for any action.

Section 8. ORDINANCES

The Council shall legislate by ordinance, and the enacting clause of every ordinance shall be “Be It Ordained by the City Council of the City of Brookshire:”. All ordinances, unless otherwise provided by law, this Charter, or by the terms of such ordinances, shall take effect immediately upon the final passage thereof.

Section 9. DUTIES OF THE COUNCIL

All powers of the City, and the determination of all matters of policy, shall be vested in the Council, except as outlined as duties of the Mayor and City Manager in Article III hereof. The Council shall have such other and further powers as have been or may be from time to time hereafter delegated to home rule cities by the Legislature of the State of Texas, including the powers incident to the exercise thereof.

Section 10. CREATE BOARDS

The Council may create boards, commissions or committees. The members of any such boards, commissions, or committees shall be appointed by the Mayor, City Manager or any Councilperson, and confirmed by the Council.

ARTICLE V: DEPARTMENTS

Section 1. DEPARTMENT OF LAW

There shall be a City Attorney, who shall be appointed by the Council, upon recommendation by the Mayor. The City Attorney shall be the legal advisor of, and attorney for, all of the officers and departments of the City, and shall represent the City in all litigation and legal proceedings. The City Attorney shall draft, approve, or file written legal objections to every ordinance before it is acted upon by the Council and shall pass upon all documents, contracts, and legal instruments in which the City may be required to perform any act, or pay any sum of money.

Section 2. MUNICIPAL COURT

- (a) There shall be a Court known as the “Municipal Court”, with such jurisdiction, powers, and duties as are given and prescribed by the laws of the State of Texas.
- (b) Judge of the Municipal Court – The Municipal Court shall be presided over by a magistrate who shall be known as the “Municipal Judge” of the Municipal Court. The Municipal Judge shall be appointed by the Mayor, or any Councilperson, with the approval of Council, for a two (2) year term. In the event the Municipal Judge is unable to act for any reason, the Mayor, with the approval of Council, shall appoint a competent person, possessing the qualifications listed above, to act in the place of the Municipal Judge. The Municipal Judge, or anyone acting in the place of the Municipal Judge, shall receive compensation as may be set by Council.
- (c) Additional Municipal Courts – The Mayor, or any Councilperson, with the approval of the Council, shall have the power to create and establish additional Municipal Courts, and the Mayor, or any Councilperson, with the approval of the Council, shall appoint a Judge of each Municipal Court, each of whom shall be required to possess the qualifications and shall serve the same term as outlined in subsection (a) of this Section.
- (d) Clerk of the Municipal Court – There shall be a Clerk of the Municipal Court who shall be appointed by the Mayor, or any Councilperson, with the approval of the Council. The Clerk shall have the power to administer oaths and affidavits, make certificates, affix the seal of the Municipal Court thereto, and otherwise perform any and all acts necessary in issuing process of such Municipal Court and conducting the business thereof.
- (e) Deputy Clerks – There shall be such deputy Clerks of the Municipal Court as may be authorized by the Mayor, with approval of the Council, who shall have authority to act for and on behalf of the Clerk of the Municipal Court, and who shall be appointed by the Mayor, or any Councilperson, with the approval of the Council.

Section 3. CITY SECRETARY

The Mayor, with the approval of the Council, shall appoint a competent person as City Secretary upon recommendation of the City Manager. Assistants to the City Secretary may be appointed by the City Manager as he or she shall deem advisable, unless the City Manager has granted to the City Secretary the authority to appoint or remove subordinates. The Office of the City Secretary shall: give notice of Council meetings; keep the minutes of the proceedings of such meetings; authenticate, by the City Secretary’s signature and record in full in a book kept and indexed for that purpose, all ordinances and resolutions of the City; and, perform such other duties as the Mayor or the Council shall assign to the City Secretary, and those elsewhere provided in this Charter and the laws of the State of Texas.

ARTICLE VI: ELECTIONS

Section 1. ELECTIONS

Elections for the Mayor and the members of the Council shall be held in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas. The election for the Mayor, Councilmember Place 1, and Councilmember Place 2 shall be held in the same election cycle. The election for Councilmember Place 3, Councilmember Place 4, and Councilmember Place 5 shall be held in the same election cycle.

Section 2. PLURALITY VOTE REQUIRED

To be elected to an office of the City, including the Mayor or a member of Council, a person must receive more votes than any other person for office.

Section 11. Said election shall be held in accordance with the Texas Election Code and the Federal Voting Rights Act.

Section 12. The Council officially finds, determines, recites, and declares that a sufficient written notice of the date, hour, place, and subject of the meeting of the Council during which it considered this Ordinance was posted at a place convenient to the public at the City Hall of the City for the time required by law preceding this meeting, as required by Chapter 551 of the Texas Government Code; and, that said meeting was open to the public as required by law at all times during which this Ordinance and the subject matter thereof was discussed, considered, and formally acted upon. The Council further ratifies, approves, and confirms the contents and posting of such written notice.

Section 13. In the event any clause, phrase, provision, sentence, or part of this Ordinance or the application of the same to any person or circumstance shall for any reason be adjudged invalid or held unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, it shall not affect, impair, or invalidate this Ordinance as a whole or any part or provision hereof other than the part declared to be invalid or unconstitutional; and the City Council of the City of Brookshire, Texas, declares that it would have passed each and every part of the same notwithstanding the omission of any such part thus declared to be invalid or unconstitutional, whether there be one or more parts.

Section 14. This ordinance shall become effective immediately upon its passage and approval.

PASSED, APPROVED, AND ADOPTED this 15th Day of February 2024
